

SOCIAL CHATTER AND HOME TALK

Saturday evening was a triumph of social enjoyment to those Kukuhaele folks favored with an invitation to the luncheon given by Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Wilson in honor of the birth of a son and heir. The spacious dining room of the head luncheon was very tastefully decorated and proved to be none too large to accommodate the guests. Hawaiian dishes and courses innumerable, prepared by one worthy of a diploma, tempted the palate of those assembled around the festive board who participated and did ample justice to them. Among the guests were Mr. and Miss Ahrens, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Barclay, Mrs. Hattie, Miss Vorlie Kuhn, Messrs. J. Jorgensen, Robert Fricke, Jas. Laid, W. Hattie, F. Koelins, William Chalmers and other prominent Kukuhaele citizens.

The banquet given at the Mochizuki, Waikiki Club, on Saturday night the sixth of the month by the Japanese Merchants' Association in commemoration of their Emperor's birthday was a successful termination of the festivities given in his honor. Historical tableaux were shown of scenes in Ancient Japan, and a cherry tree episode, showed that although our George Washington, who was, first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen, was not the first to hand the cherry tree to posterity. The sentiment differed but credit is due each despoiler of a valued tree—loyalty to truth, and an Emperor.
